

About Us

Our Mission

Our mission is to offer a variety of healthy and delicious gluten-free food and snacks made with the best quality ingredients. We want to inspire individuals to lead a balanced and healthy lifestyle. We want to a source of well-being and the "go-to" choice for healthy foods.

Our Story

Inbite is a family-owned business based in Florida with 30 years of expertise in the manufacturing business. Both Giancarlo and Ana are Industrial Engineers and long-time entrepreneurs, passionate about manufacturing and especially about encouraging conscious and balanced eating and exercising. The team's culture starts by empowering and encouraging each individual to their best capabilities and abilities.

Our Services

Inbite products can be found in specialty food stores, Cafes, and Mini Markets in the South Florida area or online. We also co-pack and develop products for other companies and institutions, following their requirements, characteristics, and functionalities (low Carb, Vegan, High Protein, Rich in Fiber, Etc.) All our products are made by us in our gluten-free facility with all-natural ingredients. No artificial flavors, preservatives, or excess sugar are being used. We are constantly searching for quality ingredients and we pledge to our customers that good manufacturing practices stand first.
